Grant Purpose	AmeriCorps VISTA members will train teachers, guidance counselors and administrators in empathy-based restorative strategies to reduce disciplinary problems and help students build positive relationships and engage with school. By limiting disruptive behavior, students will be more likely to graduate from high school and escape poverty.
Grant Activities	AmeriCorps VISTA members will work with school and district staff, as well as community partners to provide training in restorative practices. A full evaluation of the program also will be provided by VISTA members.
Grant Budget Items	CNCS will provide the living wage for VISTA members, and the district will be responsible for paying for in-county travel and training expenses for the VISTA members.
After Grant Plans	VISTA members will build internal capacity which will ensure future sustainability without additional funds.
