Grant Purpose	The University of South Florida Sarasota-Manatee (USF S-M) is developing this project with Sarasota County Schools to provide services and supports students need to avoid out-of-school suspension. The program will create a special learning center for at-risk students and those who have committed offenses which might otherwise result in out-of-school suspension or assignment to an alternative school.
Grant Activities	As a subgrantee, Sarasota County Schools will receive funds to establish a model program at Sarasota High School which will be studied by Principal Investigators at USF S-M for effectiveness. The program will include a day program for at-risk students who will be offered wrap-around social services, as well as an after-school program for students who need additional supervision and assistance. The program will be expanded during the final year of the grant to an additional high school.
Grant Budget Items	Grant funds will support staff positions, including an administrator, teachers and behavior specialists, as well as curricular supplies, in-county travel and contracts with partnering organizations which supply mental health and other services.
After Grant Plans	Investigating sustainability is part of the program design.
