Grant Purpose	Grant will support staff training and implementation of restorative strategies throughout the district, with a focus on helping vulnerable students.
Grant Activities	This funding will allow additional training of school-based staff as well as support for implementation of restorative strategies at elementary, middle and high schools around the district. Principals, assistant principals, teachers and guidance counselors will learn about restorative strategies and how they can be implemented to help students build empathy, improve student behavior and restore harm.
Grant Budget Items	Salary and benefits for a specialist to oversee the program, travel, materials and supplies.
After Grant Plans	This grant will help build internal capacity so grant funds will no longer be required.
