Grant Purpose	Our plan is to introduce third and fourth grades to the lifelong game of tennis during school hours in their physical education specials classes at our school site. We plan to initiate our students in the practical and concrete rules of tennis basics, although we also plan to introduce the ideas of team play and effort, good individual sportsmanship, and playing with cooperative attitudes while pursuing an athletic goal.
Grant Activities	PE.4.L.3.3 Identify opportunities for involvement in physical activities during the school day. -Forming small groups for stretching and warming up prior to tennis instruction. -Sprinting, stretching, and strength conditioning. P.E.3.M.1 Demonstrate a competency in many, and proficiency in a few, movement forms from a variety of categories. -Students do a mixture of running, moving, and side step recovery. -Students demonstrate off the ball movements that include recovery footwork, re
