Grant Purpose	This program is designed to teach fourth and fifth grade students, through drama, what bullying is, its effects, how to respond appropriately to bullying, and how to identify healthy relationships. Students will also develop leadership skills through the use of creative arts. This program will also help us achieve our school improvement goal of reducing the number of discipline referrals in the 2014-15 school year.
Grant Activities	The teaching artist will conduct a drama workshop which will meet after school every Friday for three months. Twenty to twenty-five student volunteers will be responsible for writing scripts and performing before an audience of fourth and fifth grade classes, community members, parents and school staff.
Grant Budget Items	The $5000 will cover the cost of the teaching artist for the three-month program. In kind items provided by Atwater would be teacher time assigned to work directly with the teaching artist. This school would also donate in kind budget for the copying costs for materials.
After Grant Plans	The students will perform before fourth and fifth grade classes, community about bullying and healthy relationships. Students will conduct weekly performances for the school news broadcast.
