The EdExplore In-School Exploration of the rain forests of Central America by Bruce Segal cultivates a desire to protect the environment while learning about Hispanic nations. Students will learn the use of phonetic skill
Grant Activities	Often learning a second language encompasses the study of vocabulary and some phrases. By using a multi-media approach I hope to expand my student's command of a language to include the culture as well. This will be accomplished through four main projects which students will be taught how to do in class and finished at home. We also will learn four songs in depth, which are played through the school's morning news. This in addition to the other songs we do in class. Students will create masks to
