Grant Purpose	Funds support a comprehensive, seven-week summer program for Alta Vista students, with the goal of increasing school readiness skills and decreasing summer learning loss. Parent University simultaneously offers adult education classes provided by community agencies and non-profit organizations to promote parenting skills and parent involvement. Parents also could enroll in a free Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA) training program so they could obtain their CNA certificate.
Grant Activities	Offer a free Eagle Academy summer program to students, and simultaneous Parent University for parents, including training in parenting skills, information on child development and a free Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA) program.
Grant Budget Items	Social workers, materials and supplies.
After Grant Plans	The school will seek additional outside funds, or consider using Title I funds.
