Grant Purpose	The mission of the Lowe's Labyrinth is to have a student and community-created space on the campus that allows for creativity, contemplation and a curricular connection to the Visual and Language Arts curriculum.
Grant Activities	The project will involve clearing the current area of grass, leveling the soil, laying ground cover, designing the labyrinth with rope and tape markers, and installing the shell walkway, borders, and mulching in between the spaces. Students can work on the labyrinth during the extracurricular schedule after school.
Grant Budget Items	Landscape ground cover, pebble shell, garden dividers, mulch, plants.
After Grant Plans	The Lowe's Labyrinth will be a walking path built adjacent to the current playground in an open space area of field. The Labyrinth will be maintained by student organizations and community volunteers and will be available year round.
