Grant Purpose	The purpose of this grant is to provide Title 1 students with opportunities to communicate on a higher level through exercises, games, and improvisations. The goal is to help young writers develop ideas and content, establish a structure for specific writing styles, and create a personal writer's voice.
Grant Activities	Florida Studio Theatre will meet with each second grade class in a series of 6 Emotional Intelligence Workshops. The exercises will vary from: viscerally responding to visual art, answering thought provoking questions, reflecting on literature, plays, music, and improvisational experiences.
Grant Budget Items	The grant will be used for services provided by Florida Studio Theatre visiting 6 Second grade classrooms. The cost per unit is $400 dollars with a total cost of $2,400 for the series of workshops.
After Grant Plans	The grant activities will continue to be used by students during classroom discussions, writing, social interactions, and artistic expression.
