Grant Purpose	The purpose of this grant will be to expose the students to the story of Thurgood Marshall the first black Supreme Court Justice who rose from poverty to become a success. This correlates to our SIP by supporting the goal of "How the school incorporates applied and integrated courses to help students see the relationships between subjects and relevance to their future?" Students experience civil rights, race and discrimination, and overcoming adversity.
Grant Activities	Students will go and see Thurgood a powerful play based on the life of Justice Thurgood Marshall. From a childhood in the back alleys of Baltimore to the Supreme Court of the United States, Justice Marshall overcame many adversities.
Grant Budget Items	The grant will fund tickets, substitutes, and transportation for the field trip.
After Grant Plans	After the play, Thurgood Marshall will be discussed as well as race and inequality in addition to civil rights in the United States.
