	Grant Purpose/Objective Information
Estimated Start Date	12/10/2013
Estimated End Date	4/4/2014
Grant Purpose	Students will be exposed to great works of art at the Ringling Museum, and more specifically, two exhibits: "Unfamiliar Realities" and "Optical Impulses." The two separate field trips to the museum (which are needed in order to view the two exhibits) will take the approximately 250 students on a visual tour of classic pieces from bygone eras to compelling images from everyday life. According to one description of the exhibits, the artists "strip away representational connotations in an attempt t
Grant Activities	The two field trips are hands-on, creative experiences for students and will develop as follows: We will utilize three of the Ringling Museum Exhibition Teacher Resource Guides before, throughout, and after our field trips: "James Turrell in Light and Art," "James Turrell Resources," and "Exploring Light and Color: A Resource Guide for the Art of Josef Albers and James Turrell." Students will be engaged in Kagan Cooperative Learning Strategies the entire way through. One strategy that we will ha
Grant Budget Items	Visiting Artists' Fees (two will come to RHS for workshops) = $1000 Museum Fee for Chaperones = $100 Sarasota County Public Schools School Buses for Both Field Trips = $2017.00 Substitutes for 3 Teachers for Both Field Trips = $750.00 Supplies for classroom/workshop activities = $1133.00
After Grant Plans	We know that if students can learn how to "unwrap a work of art," then they will use that ability in their own reading, where they will be able to "cite strong and thorough textual evidence to support analysis of what the text says explicitly as well as inferences drawn from the text, including determining where the text leaves matters uncertain." (LACC.9-12.RL.1) Likewise, if students can successfully learn how to "analyze and develop an interpretation of a literary work by describing an author
