Grant Purpose	Closing the Literacy Gap will offer training to all 3rd through 5th grade English Language Arts (ELA) teachers, plus 6th grade science, social studies and ELA teachers to help boost student ELA achievement and close the gap between English Language Learners (ELL), students with disabilities, Black and Hispanic students and their peers.
Grant Activities	High-quality workshops, provided by district Curriculum Specialists with expertise in literacy, ESOL and ESE instruction, will focus on the components of a strong literacy block, standards-based lessons, specific support strategies for ELL and students with disabilities and providing culturally-relevant texts. Sixth grade teacher training will include cross-curricular vocabulary/word study and comprehension strategies for content area informational text.
Grant Budget Items	Substitutes and/or stipends so teachers can attend training, instructional materials, in-county travel expenses, contracted external evaluator and videographer.
After Grant Plans	Teacher capacity will be developed and sustained beyond the grant period.
