Grant Purpose	Over the past two years, two Sarasota students committed suicide and counselors notified families of 279 children that their child made alarming statements. School counselors are often occupied with other duties and are not always immediately responsive when a student in crisis needs to talk with someone. The Crisis Text Line is available to students, but not many know about it; informative signage will help spread the word about this important mental health resource.
Grant Activities	Grant funds will provide informative signage at schools directing students to the Crisis Text Line. Signs will be posted in bathroom walls beside mirrors in every district middle and high school encouraging students experiencing stress and crisis to call for help.
Grant Budget Items	Purchase of small plastic signage to be posted at middle and high schools.
After Grant Plans	Signs will be maintained at by school facilities staff.
