Grant Purpose	Grant of $75,000 will support the district's program to educate homeless children and youth through its partnership with the Sarasota YMCA's Schoolhouse Link program.
Grant Activities	Schoolhouse Link provides McKinney-Vento services to homeless students, helping to identify, improve attendance and academics of homeless children, families and unaccompanied youth. This includes providing case management services and helping find and connect families and youth to the mental and other health services they need, helping them obtain academic supports, and ensuring they are provided with transportation or other support to keep them in the same school all year.
Grant Budget Items	Funds are provided to the Sarasota YMCA's Schoolhouse Link program for services provided to homeless families and youth.
After Grant Plans	Title I, Part A funds also support this important work.
