Grant Purpose	The purpose of this grant is to assist adults in developing literacy skills, completing high school or the equivalent, preparing for post-secondary education and employment, and gaining knowledge to assist in their children's educational development. The target population is adults, aged 16 and over, who are deficient in reading, math, or language skills; lack a high school diploma; and/or are limited in English language proficiency.
Grant Activities	This grant will support classroom instruction to assist adults in developing basic literacy skills and preparing for a GED(R)high school equivalency diploma at multiple sites around the county. It will also support related career counseling services for students and professional development for staff.
Grant Budget Items	The budget continues salaries for a full-time teacher and an administrative assistant and for part-time (hourly) staff including instructors, teacher aides, and counselors; staff professional development and travel, a contract with the Literacy Council for tutoring services, membership in the Florida Adult Technical Distance Education Consortium for shared online instructional services; online software licenses; and instructional supplies.
After Grant Plans	This is a supplementary instructional program. Should the grant end or not be funded, the services will not be continued at the end of the grant period.
