Grant Purpose	The purpose of this grant is to improve adult ESOL instructional services throughout the county and infuse civics education into the adult ESOL curriculum. The target population is adults, aged 16 and over, whose native language is not English. It will contribute to the Suncoast Technical College school improvement plan by promoting the development of students' reading and other language skills.
Grant Activities	This project will support classroom instruction for adult ESOL students at the STC main campus and sites in Venice and North Port.
Grant Budget Items	The budget provides hourly salaries for part-time instructors, instructional materials and supplies, and subscriptions for online instructional software.
After Grant Plans	This is a supplementary instructional program. Should the grant end or not be funded, the services will not be continued at the end of the grant period.
