

Gabriel Hament

Dear Eric,

Per our phone conversation on January 29th I would like to formally express my interest in serving on the Financial Advisory Committee.

As a professional in the institutional investment management world, I believe I can offer a disciplined and balanced perspective in analyzing and monitoring the district's financial position with respect to its budget and investments. Additionally, I would respectfully recommend that the Board not only emphasize diversification in geographic distribution of membership on the Financial Advisory Committee, but also give weighting to those applicants who have attended and graduated from a district school.

Thank you for your consideration,

Gabriel Hament

Gabriel Hament joined Cumberland in late 2015 to assist with the firm's Charitable and Foundation Accounts. Gabriel is an investment adviser representative. In addition to servicing the firm's nonprofit clients, Gabriel works with Financial Advisors in the Sarasota-Manatee region explaining Cumberland's investment philosophy and portfolio management options. Gabriel is a 2017 Level I Candidate in the CFA Program.

Gabriel was previously a political consultant in the Sarasota region where he supervised and coordinated campaign messaging, fundraising and field outreach programs. A native of Sarasota, he earned his B.A. in political science with a minor in history as a John V. Lombardi Scholar at the University of Florida.

Gabriel is a graduate of the Connect Florida Institute, a sister organization of Leadership Florida. The mission of Connect Florida is to educate, engage and inspire the state's top emerging leaders.

Gabriel is a member of the Programming Committee of the Sarasota Tiger Bay Club, which promotes community understanding of current political and social issues, through public discourse and the free exchange of ideas. The Sarasota Tiger Bay Club is a non-partisan political organization established in 1982.

Gabriel has also served on the board of directors of the Pine View Foundation. Gabriel attended Pine View School for 11 years, graduating in 2010.
