Grant Purpose	The primary students in our school have a wide range of reading levels, abilities, and interests. Imagine being able to choose a book that is not only interesting to you, but also at the perfect level of comfort and difficulty to stretch your thinking so that you can grow! In order for students to become successful readers, they must first feel confident. Providing students with a wide variety of books that are a perfect fit for their individual interests and needs will allow our emerging readers
Grant Activities	With a wide variety of leveled texts at their fingertips, students have endless options for learning and growing in authentic ways! Students will have the opportunity to "book shop" each week in their classroom library where they will be guided by their teacher to self-select books that feel "just right" for them as readers. These "just right" books will not only be ones that they love to read, but books that they CAN read with accuracy and fluency on their own like real readers do! Teachers will
Grant Budget Items	Materials purchased will consist of high quality leveled books for use in the classroom as well as for a home school connection. The materials will stay with the grade level classroom they are assigned to.
After Grant Plans	The materials purchased will be used within the classroom for many years and classes after the grant year ends. These materials will stay with the assigned classroom inventory.
