Grant Purpose	Alta Vista K-5 students will engage in an interdisciplinary project focusing on reading comprehension through the creation of a storyboard or short animation and song lyrics. Our project-based assessment will be formative as well as summative as students engage in reading, speaking and listening, writing musically as well as critically, and creating artwork. Each of the six areas of STREAM (Science, Technology, Reading, Engineering, the Arts, Math) are incorporated into the project. Specifically
Grant Activities	In January 2016, Alta Vista K-5 students begin reading the first of several pre-selected PBS book in their classrooms and discuss the book's higher meaning. After discussion, students will engage in writing a summary or poem of each book with their classroom teachers. Working in class with Play Clay, students may sculpt scenes from the book to work out the characters, setting, sequencing, and other components of the story, The composition will be brought to music and art where the written summar
