Grant Purpose	With high-stakes testing involved, it is imperative that we develop strong creative writers at an early age. Through this project our goal is to increase our current student writing scores of .50 to 3 point grade appropriate writing rubric to a 2.5 or higher. First Graders at Fruitville Elementary School are a diverse group. They are autistic, gifted, multi-language speakers, and many come from families in need. All are eager learners who love to tell a story. We believe that this project e
Grant Activities	This project is designed to inspire over 100 first graders to write and prepare them to be good and even great writers of the future. Through this project students will get a chance to travel to Florida Studio Theatre (FST) and watch The Velveteen Rabbit performed. Teachers will discuss the aspect of playwriting such a setting, character development, dialogue, etc. The teachers will also compare and contrast the previously read story to the play performance. Florida Studio Theatre actors wil
Grant Budget Items	Pertinent budget items that would be funded through this grant would be admission to venue, as well as transportation to venue, with venue being the Florida Studio Theatre.
After Grant Plans

	Students will have gained an appreciation for aesthetic and critical analysis of the arts through the theatre experience. By writing their plays the students will recognize the intrinsic reward in writing that can capture one's heart.
