Grant Purpose	This project will be a partnership between Florida Studio Theatre and our entire school. Every student will have field trip opportunities to see shows at FST, see performances at our school, and write plays of their own. This partnership is through FST's WRITE A PLAY program, a series of plays and workshops that give students the tools and inspiration to write plays of their own. This grant contributes to our SIP plan of achieving on-level or above writing for 80% of our Title 1 school populati
Grant Activities	Students will see live theatrical performances from Florida Studio Theatre, both at the theatre and at our school, participate in classroom workshops provided by Florida Studio Theatre professionals and write plays of their own.
Grant Budget Items	Program Cost (Includes three plays and writing workshops) for the entire school and a one day Performance of The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe at our school
After Grant Plans	Students will integrate their writing experience from this project into their daily writing experiences at school and home.
