Grant Purpose	At Pine View, we strive for a climate of continual learning and improvement. This project provides elementary, middle, and high-school teachers specific, actionable feedback on a professional learning target. This project ties into our SIP Goal 8: Increase the use of Accountable Talk strategies campus-wide. We hope that each teacher's proficiency in Accountable Talk is improved through the one-on-one coaching. Each also target a Reading, Math, Science goal.
Grant Activities	Participate in a Book Study using, Focus on Teaching: Using Video for High-Impact Instruction; Complete survey on strength & growth areas and connect with an EdConnective Coach; Participate in 9 Observations with 10 Feedback Sessions during a 5-week coaching partnership; Participate in forum on the strengths and weaknesses of model; Participate in collegial conversations in a grade-level or department PLCs; Share results at an Assistant Principal's cohort meeting.
Grant Budget Items	- Six EdConnective Instructional Coaches, seven observations, and eight feedback sessions over a four-week or five-week period. $1240 per teacher, totaling $7440. - Six Samsung HD Video cameras with tripod and SD card, for video taping lessons at $200, totaling

	$1200. - Seven copies of Focus on Teaching: Using Video for High-Impact Instruction, at $24, totaling $168
After Grant Plans	I have asked the teachers to share their experiences at their grade-level and department PLCs, which can continue past the grant period. I am also interested in copying the coaching model completed with the 6 teachers and expanding that beyond with other teachers. I am hoping the six teachers will partner with their peers on campus to continue the coaching model.
