Grant Purpose	First Grade's Exploration entitled "Rising Writers" is written for FST's " Write-a-Play 3 Show Subscription", which consists of two field trips to Florida Studio Theatre and one school performance from the players of Florida Studio Theatre. (hereafter known as FST) For the first field trip, students will visit FST to watch a live performance of the classic Robin Hood. Later, the players from FST will visit our school to perform and include students in The Write Stuff. This performance will
Grant Activities	The integration of art with subject areas creates meaningful connections that add depth to learning. Collaborating with FST's players will give teachers a unique opportunity to work professionally on a mutual goal that will benefit the students. As students enjoy drama, they will collaborate to learn the process of play writing. Their writing will be displayed at the school and entered into the Under Six playwright competition. This Exploration grant will enable more students to gain the
Grant Budget Items	This Exploration is aligned with our Florida Standards. Additionally, it engages, encourages and excites students about writing. It correlates with our IB Unit "Tell Me a Story" which includes the writing and presentation of fables/plays by the students. The budget includes two trips to Florida Studio Theatre and one day of in-school presentations (on stage and in the classrooms.)
After Grant Plans

	Many of our students will write plays as groups or as individuals. This Exploration will foster a desire within our students to write and incorporate their feelings in their compositions. Hopefully, this experience will ignite "budding authors" to reach their creative potential.
