Grant Purpose	The exploration opportunity will be for every third-grade student at Tuttle Elementary. It will include all three parts of Florida Studio Theatre's WRITE A PLAY program. First students will attend a performance of Robin Hood at Florida Studio Theatre. Second FST will bring their Playmakers Tour of The Write Stuff to our school. As a part of the Playmakers portion of the exploration every classroom will get an in-class writing workshop to start writing individual and group plays. Following this c
Grant Activities	Tuttle has been a part of the WRITE A PLAY program for the past six years, and this year we are looking to further integrate the arts into our writing curriculum. One of our school goals this year is to improve ELA learning, and the WRITE A PLAY program offers a creative and exciting approach to writing. We want students to delve into the elements of playwriting, and encourage and excite students to write and think creatively. As a Title I school this opportunity to experience live theatre,
