Grant Purpose	Our school believes in improving our Graduation Rate, raising the GPA of our students, providing service opportunities for our students as well as growing leadership. This grant will provide an opportunity for our top students to tutor those struggling at North Port High School and Atwater Elementary.
Grant Activities	1.Training our Sophomore, Junior and Senior students to tutor any student who is struggling. 2.Provide volunteer tutors to travel to Atwater Elementary and tutor 3.Provide certified teacher support in all core areas. 4.Opportunity for service hours for all tutors.
Grant Budget Items	1.Staff Support: One teacher assisting and supervising Monday through Thursday. 2.Consumable School supplies: For any student needing items: i.e. from pencils to notebooks 3.Light snacks for all students while working 4.Supplies that will sustain and last: i.e. calculators, scissors, etc.
After Grant Plans	It is our hope that after we have data that reflects the following; 1. Increase in GPA of students served when compared to prior year 2. Increase in graduation rate over time 3. Increase in students receiving service hours We will be able to approach outside philanthropic organizations, Thrivent, etc. to fund our program continuously. We need the data.
