Grant Purpose	This exploration is interdisciplinary and multi-cultural. It exposes students to math rhythms, history, kinesthetic learning, and includes an interactive, hands-on creative activity. Students start to naturally and subconsciously use higher-order thinking skills. Students will be exposed to the culture and history of Bali, and how dance and art are an important facet of Balinese life. The mask making workshop engages all learning styles, including visual, kinesthetic, interpersonal, intrapersona
Grant Activities	This exploration begins with a performance by Suraprasa, showing traditional Balinese dance. She will discuss Balinese history, music, art, value system, and story-telling through movement, exposing students to a totally new cultural experience. After the performances, students should be able to talk about Balinese culture. The mask making workshop is designed for 3rd grade and will give students an opportunity to interact with Suraprasa and create their own Balinese masks.
Grant Budget Items	Contracted Services: Suraprasa Materials/Supplies Required: Mask Making
After Grant Plans

	Students will be given a questionnaire to assess their absorption of Balinese culture, art, and story. Third grade students will engage in critiques and story-telling of their own invention after the mask making activity.
