Grant Purpose	As a result of this experience, we expect the students' motivation to write imaginative and interesting stories to improve. This exploration will allow students from low economic homes to attend three live theatrical performances., something they would otherwise be unlikely to do. The students will be involved in the Young Playwrights Festival, allowing them the opportunity to write and submit their plays to Florida Studio Theatre. Students will write a play, develop real or imagined experien
Grant Activities	Students will visit Florida Studio Theatre twice to witness live theatrical performances. Florida Studio Theatre will visit Tuttle for a performance and a question and answer session with the actors.
Grant Budget Items	Student admission and transportation costs
After Grant Plans	To measure student success, we will compare current writing skills and techniques to writing samples after the performances. Students will create and perform their own play in front of their peers. Students will be assessed using a rubric based on the third grade LAFS set of standards.
