Grant Purpose	Students in our fourth grade social studies and reading classes will spend time researching a topic of inquiry guided by the teacher. Once the students becomes familiar with their topic they will work with teaching artist Judy Levine to create a plan for their story box sculpture project. Students will learn to use observation, symbols and metaphor to represent original ideas and research in constructing an artistic visual narrative sculpture or book
Grant Activities	Teachers will use traditional methods of evaluation for the research and writing portion of the project. Checklists, rubrics, and reflection writing assignments will be used to evaluate the finished story box sculpture and power point presentations. Students will be evaluated on their presentation skills in the areas of speaking, listening, and pacing. Students will also self evaluate their effort and quality of completion.
Grant Budget Items	Teaching Artist for 5 visits for 4 classrooms $2,550.00 Digital Cameras for student use 1 per 10 students $550.00
After Grant Plans	We will resubmit grant proposal next year.
