Grant Purpose	This unique exploration will help our students develop their writing skills, boost their confidence in writing and publishing works, make the performing arts more accessible and relatable, and increase student interest and motivation in the performing arts, theater, and writing a play. It will also increase parent engagement.
Grant Activities	Students and chaperones will attend 2 performances at FST. Bay Haven will host 1 performance and a writing workshop facilitated by FST. Students may participate in Safari Live interactive chats with FST. Writing Process Student Folders will be used by students to author original plays and submit them to the FST Young Playwright's Contest.
Grant Budget Items	Student admission (198 students): $2,376 chaperone admission (3 per class x 2 performances): $396 Busses (2 performances): $580 Writing Process Student Folders: $225 TOTAL COST: $3,577
After Grant Plans	Students will continue to engage in the writing & publishing process throughout their educational experience. The personal interaction between students and FST actors will inspire a lifelong engagement in the performing arts. Parents who may not have been able to afford to chaperoning in the past will see the value of involvement and continue to look for new ways to become involved in their children's education.
