Grant Purpose	This grant addresses the district vision of high-quality music instruction provided by a highly-qualified music specialist who works in collaboration with the schools' band directors. This project gives a number of students the opportunity to study woodwind instruments in a small group setting they would typically not have access to.
Grant Activities	Dr. Jane Hoffman, a music specialist in woodwinds will visit Booker Middle and Riverview High in a scheduled structure to provide individual and small group instruction to students on flute, clarinet and saxophone. Dr. Hoffman is a certified teacher and is currently a substitute teacher for the Sarasota County Schools.
Grant Budget Items	The grant funds will be used for Dr. Hoffman's contracted services.
After Grant Plans	If the grant is not continued in the future the project will end.
