Grant Purpose	First Grade's Exploration entitled "Promising Playwrights" is written for FST's " Write-a-Play 3 Show Subscription", which consists of two field trips to Florida Studio Theatre and one school performance from the players of Florida Studio Theatre. (hereafter known as FST) For the first field trip, students will visit FST to watch a live performance of the classic The Velveteen Rabbit. Later, the players from FST will visit our school to perform and include students in Ready, Set, Write. Thi
Grant Activities	The integration of art with subject areas creates meaningful connections that add depth to learning. Collaborating with FST's players will give teachers a unique opportunity to work professionally on a mutual goal that will benefit the students. As students enjoy drama, they will collaborate to learn the process of play writing. Their writing will be displayed at the school and entered into the Under Six playwright competition. This Exploration grant will enable more students to gain the
Grant Budget Items	The budget includes student admission to 2 field trips to Florida Studio Theatre. It also includes the FST onstage performance at the school, as well as classroom visitations by the performers. Bus transportation is provided for one of the field trips, and the other bus travel will be combined and provided by "Embracing Our Differences".

After Grant Plans	Aligned with our Florida Standards, this exploration engages, encourages and excites students about daily writing. It promotes the writing and presentation of fables/plays created by the students, who incorporate their feelings in their compositions. Hopefully, this experience will ignite "promising playwrights to reach their potential and gain an appreciation for the arts through writing.
