Grant Purpose	Building on the district's arts integrated professional development, the BMO Harris Bank grant will help sustain, and expand this work. Through this professional development teachers will implement arts integrated instruction as part of their classroom practice with greater proficiency and frequency.
Grant Activities	A series of workshops are offered throughout the school year, with a summer intensive in June. Master Teaching Artists from the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts Roster, lead training sessions for teachers. Any Given Child oversees the planning of each workshop ensuring alignment with the District's curriculum and academic goals.
Grant Budget Items	The grant will help cover the material, supplies, and resources necessary to carry out arts integrated workshops. Items included are teacher packets/curriculum, art supplies, and workshop supporting materials.
After Grant Plans	Any Given Child is continually pursuing sustainability. Through community investment---from foundations, businesses, and individual donors, arts integrated professional development will have a lasting impact.
